Remuneration Committee Charter

1 Remuneration Function: Remuneration Committee Charter

- 1.1 The Company has a separate Remuneration Committee to consider matters of remuneration. The Committee functions in accordance with the Remuneration Committee Charter. Subject to the size and composition of the full Board, the Remuneration Committee is to include at least three members, or which at least 2 are to be independent non executive directors of the Company.
- 1.2 The function of the Committee is to review and make appropriate recommendations on:
- (a) remuneration packages of executive directors, non-executive directors and senior executives; and
 - (b) employee incentive and equity-based plans including the appropriateness of performance hurdles and total payments proposed.
- 1.3 The full Board shall meet in its capacity as the Remuneration Committee at least once a year and otherwise as required. Minutes of all meetings of the Committee are to be kept. Committee meetings will be governed by the same rules as set out in the Company's constitution, as they apply to meetings of the Board.
- 1.4 The Committee is to make decisions with respect to appropriate remuneration and incentive policies for executive directors and senior executives which:
- 1.4.1 will motivate executive directors and senior executives to pursue long term growth and success of the Company within an appropriate control framework;
 - 1.4.2 demonstrate a clear correlation between key performance and remuneration; and
 - 1.4.3 will align the interests of key leadership with the long-term interests of the Company's shareholder.
- 1.5 The Committee is to ensure that:
- 1.5.1 executive remuneration packages involve a balance between fixed and incentive pay, reflecting short and long term performance objectives appropriate to the Company's circumstances and objectives;
 - 1.5.2 a proportion of executives' remuneration is structured in a manner designed to link reward to corporate and individual performances; and
 - 1.5.3 recommendations are made to the Board with respect to the quantum of bonuses to be paid to executives.
- 1.6 To the extent that the Company adopts a different remuneration structure for its non-executive directors, the Committee shall document its reasons for the purpose of disclosure to shareholders.

- 1.7 The Committee is to ensure that:
- 1.7.1 fees paid to non-executive directors are within the aggregate amount approved by shareholders and make recommendations to the Board with respect to the need for increases to this aggregate amount at the Company's AGM;
 - 1.7.2 non-executive directors are remunerated by way of fees (in the form of cash and/or superannuation benefits);
 - 1.7.3 non-executive directors are not provided with retirement benefits other than statutory superannuation entitlements; and
 - 1.7.4 non-executive directors are not entitled to participate in equity-based remuneration schemes designed for executives without due consideration and appropriate disclosure to the Company's shareholders.
- 1.8 To the extent that the Company adopts a different remuneration structure for its non-executive directors, the Committee shall document its reasons for the purpose of disclosure to shareholders.
- 1.9 The Committee is to:
- 1.9.1 review and make recommendations concerning long-term incentive compensation plans, including the use of share options and other equity-based plans. Except as otherwise delegated by the Board, the Committee will act on behalf of the Board to administer equity-based and employee benefit plans, and as such will discharge any responsibilities under those plans including making and authorising grants, in accordance with the terms of those plans;
 - 1.9.2 ensure that incentive plans are designed around appropriate and realistic performance targets that measure relative performance and provide rewards when they are achieved; and
 - 1.9.3 continually review and if necessary improve any existing benefit programs established for employees.
